National Children's Book Week: April 30 - May 6 *****

Night @ the Library: Tuesday, May 1st at 7pm. A Westerner in Saudi Arabia.

Join former Drummond resident, Prish Mordan as she presents her experience in Saudi Arabia with photos, mementos and refreshments. Rocky Shoals will return to the library stage on May at 7pm. Join us for nautical tunes and historical tales of the sea.

Story Hour! Wednesdays at 11:00 am Bring your preschooler or Kindergartener for an hour of stories, activities, crafts and fun - every Wednesday at 11:00am. Join us as we say goodbye to Scarlett Melborn, before she moves back to Idaho and welcome Megan Miller as our new program coordinator. You'll recognize Megan as she has been helping Scarlett and Catrina with programming every third week. Sign up for REMIND and you'll receive text reminders about upcoming topics and events.

Books & Babies!!! Saturdays at 11:00am. While big sisters and brothers are listening and learning at Story Hour, Hayley will be helping to keep babies busy in the library with rhyming games, board books, and opportunity to interact with other babies.

SYNC Free Audio books for Teens! SYNC is dedicated to introducing the listening experience to the teen audience. SYNC is sponsored by Audiofile Magazine and titles are delivered through the OverDrive app. Simply sign-up to get notifications of when the FREE audiobook downloads are available. You can receive alerts by text message, email, or by visiting www.audiobooksync.com. Titles change every Thursday at 7am ET when the program is running. Starts April 26th!

May 4th: National Star Wars Day. "May the 'fourth' Be With You!"

Community Conversations: May 28th at 1:30 Drummond's library is taking the lead in becoming the first Dementia Friendly Library in Montana. For those interested in helping to create a space for volunteers, caregivers and loved ones who are in any stage of memory loss, Alzheimer's or dementia, please contact the library. In Cooperation with the Alzheimer's Association, the next Community Conversation will be held at the library on or around May 19th.

Thanks Blackfoot!

Drummond Library received a $500 grant toward the purchase of a KIC scanning system. Patrons may scan family mementos, documents, photos, and recipes for scrapbooks, memory albums and cookbooks. The intuitive software will allow click and drag embellishments and access to off-site printing.

Prevent Summer Slide: Students may borrow up to 15 books this summer and return them all when school starts in August. Last year, a dozen children from Drummond School and ten from Hall school took advantage of the opportunity to check out a bag of books. A registration letter will be sent home with your child and they may check out books on the last day of school.

Book Clubs: Between the Covers: Last Tuesday at 7pm May 28th: The Beekeeper's Apprentice by Laurie King
Feed n' Read: 2nd Wednesday at 2pm

Thank you to the following patrons for their donations: Pat St. Tourangeau for new titles for the collection, LeeAnn Corlette for 2 boxes of books. The Wagon Wheel for $50 donation for the Fairy Princess Tea Party food and fun! Blackfoot Telecommunications for a $500 grant. PAEF Philipsburg Area Education Foundation for a $1000 grant. Thank you to National Honor Society students for filling gazillions of plastic eggs for the Annual Easter Egg Hunt!

Ken Wall offered students experience in GIS journal mapping, you may view their maps about local ranches, bus routes, NFL stadiums, and historical events by visiting ARCGIS.com. Seventh and eighth graders also learned about Poetry Slam Competition from Elizabeth and her cohorts from Seeley Lake High School and finished their unit on poetry with a Poetry Picnic and a Poetry Popcorn Party. Seniors participated in a Poetry Cafe in the library where they recited favorite poems and enjoyed lattes and decadent desserts to celebrate the last day of National Poetry Month. Fairy Princess Tea: Thirteen fairy princesses and their fathers enjoyed tea, sweets, games and dancing at the first Father Daughter Fairy Princess Tea.
